Yesterday, at 12 o'clock, a meeting of the representatives of the city of Memphis and the creditors took place at the St. Nicholas Hotel. On Nov. 28, the Mayor issued a message in view of the action of the General Council, calling a convention of the bonded debt creditors, in which it was submitted that the bonded debt of the city was $3,899,500 - the past due interest (to Jahuary, 1875.) $471,665—making $4,371,165, from which was to be deducted $220,000, on account of the sale of city stock, leaving the net debt $4,151,165. The closing paragraph of the Mayor's message stated that they could not pay, and recommended the establishment of veins have been opened, both a short dis-tance from the railroad line, one 30 inches, the other 5 feet thick. a new basis of credit, based upon the new series of bonds to be issued and an annual levy of some fixed amount for interest and sinking fund, with such guarantees as might be demanded by the bonded debt creditors, which would be acceptable to the tax-payers. In submitting this propsition to the General Council the Mayor (Hon. John League) recommended that G. A. Hanson, City Attorney; Messrs. I. M. Hill, E. M. Apperson, P. C. Bethel, J. M. Keat-ing and Col. A. J. Kellar should be appointed to meet with the creditors, with a view to obtaining from them some proposition acceptable to the Council, and which could be acceptable to the people at the coming municipal election. These recommendations were approved by the Council, and the gentlemen named were ordered to meet in New York, on Dec. 15, in pursuance of their spirit.

Yesterday, therefore, in parlor 433 of the St. Nicholas Hotel, the first meeting took place, and the committee were enabled to explain to the bondholders the exact state of affairs. Mr. E. M. Apperson was called to the chair, and J. M. Keating, of the Memphis Appeal, was appointed secretary. There were present Col. A. J. Kellar, of the Memphis Avalanche; Messrs. P. C. Bethel, and G. A. Hanson, City Attorney; and of the bondholders, Col. Lathers, of Charleston; Messrs. F. H. Cossitt, of New York; Parsons, Peck, Alexander, Moses, Redmond, Graniss, Bierne and Betbel.

COTTON. The stock on hand last evening was taken this morning by the committee appointed for that purpose, and was found to be 14.176 bales. It is remarkable that the actual stock differed so little from the calculated stock on the books of the Exchange and in this morning's paper, having been only three bales more, as the calculated stock was 14,173 bales. This fact is highly creditable to the operation of the Exchange and the efficiency of its Secretary.

The market having closed steadier at quotations yesterday, retained its improved tone during to-day, in consequence of the $5 50. intelligence that spots were held higher in New York. There was more inquiry today than heretofore, but no perceptible increase of offerings. The market closed steady at yestesday's quotations, which were as follows:

with a sharp pressure to sell Wabash which declined 3 per cent., and dragged down the entire list with it. The market opened weak and prices declined sharply under large offerings, Wabash, Northwestern, Pacific Mail and Western Union leading the decline. Later there was a slight rally selling down to 254; do. preferred 374, a decline of 54 per cent. from yesterday; and Northwestern to 454. There were considerable sales, seller's options, of Western Union at a per cent. below the regular price. During the afternoon the great de-pression in Northwestern broke to 443;

Wabash went off to 25; Pacific Mail to 374

Ohios declined to 291; Union Pacific to 841 lied from 1 to 1 per cent., under the influence of large purchases to cover short sales. At times the dealings were attended with great excitement and large blocks of stock were thrown overboard. The decline in in Wabash gave rise to much gossip and the finance of the companies were freely discussed. Wabash bonds declined heavily, first selling down 5 per cent. to 62; second, to 68; and first St. Louis division to 67.

The numbers from I to 50,000 corresponding with those numbers on the tickets, printed on separate slips of paper, are encircled with small tin tubes, and purced in one wheel. The drst 516 prizes, similarly printed and controlled, are placed in another which. The which are then revolved, and a number is drawn from the wheel of numbers, and at the same time a prize when of humbers, and at the same time a prize is drawn from the other wheel. The number and prizes drawn out are opened and exhibited to the audience, and registered by the Commissioners, the prize being placed against the number drawn. This operation is repeated until all the prizes are drawn out.

Explanation of Approximation Prizes

The five preceding and five succeeding unm bets to those drawing the first six (6) prizes will be entitled to the 60 approximation prizes. For example: If ticket No. 11,250 draws the $169,000 prize, those tickets numbered 11,245, 11,245, 11,251, 11,253, 11,251, 11,253, 11,253, 11,253, 11,254, 11,255, will each be entitled to 22,300, if ticket No. 548 draws the 300,000 prize, those tickets numbered 543, 544, 545, 546, 547, 549, 550, 551, 542, 533, will each be entitled to 22,300, and so on, according to the above scheme. 551, 562, 563, will each be entirled to $1,000, and so on, according to the above scheme. The 5,000 prizes of $20 will be determined of the $1,000 prizes of $20 will be determined of the $1,000 prizes the number that draws the $100,000 prize ends with 1, then all the tickets where the number ends with 1, then all the $20. If the number ends with 1 will be entitled to $20. If the number ends with 2 will be entitled to $20, and so on to 0.

27 Remember that every prize is drawn, and payable in full without dedection.
